

faithfully yours.

In these challenging economic times, you can count on us.

Serving the Catholic community for 40 years, Concord Litho helps organizations find, connect with, and retain loyal donors through affordable campaigns driven by sound strategy, fresh creative and award-winning production. Last year our fundraising team helped our clients acquire a million new donors and raise $100 million for their causes and missions.

Your program needs to perform like never before. Our experienced fundraising associates can dig into your data, assess your creative, identify hidden opportunities, and recommend budget-conscious new tactics to improve your results.
